BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t*

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 28, 1819.

The commotion, at Baltimore, occasioned by the recent disclosures of the state of some of the banks, and of the incorrect conduct of some of the bank officers, is far from having ceased. We hear of bills of indictment found against some on account of these matters, and of strong imputations affecting the characters of others. We have seen one or two pamphlets, too, relating to the bank transactions of individuals; and though the newspapers are generally silent respecting the developements which are daily made, the advertisements sometimes give us an insight into the nature of them. Among these publications has been one, under the signature of a late officer of the Commercial and Farmers' Bank, which has excited a good deal of attention, and has elicited the following notice, which we copy for the guidance of such of our readers as have dealings with Baltimore.

COMMERCIAL AND FARMERS' BANK.

At the request of the President and Directors of the Commercial and Farmers' Bank of Baltimore, the undersigned have examined the statement exhibited by them of the debts, credits, and funds of the said bank, and of the discounted notes on hand, and are unanimously of opinion that they are fully competent to meet promptly all their engagements. It appears, that on the 20th June, there were due to the Louisiana Bank about 7000 dollars, and to the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank in Philadelphia about 8000 dollars, which have since been paid, and that the error in the statement of deposits in March last was made known to the Directors at the time it occurred.

J. CAREY,
HENRY PAYSON,
PHIL. MOORE.

Baltimore, July 23, 1819.

We are permitted by a friend to make the following extracts from a letter from an officer of the U. S. frigate Macedonian, dated South Pacific Ocean, lat. 39, south, long. 80, west, January 25th, 1819.

[Norfolk Herald.

"The 24th day out from the Capes of Virginia, we made the Cape de Verd Isles—a fine run—in 8 days more we crossed the equator, and till the 7th of January, then out 58 days, we had remarkably fine weather—we that day made the Faulkland Islands, in lat. 52 south—the 64th day we made Staten Land—an island a degree or two to eastward of Cape Horn; and on the 66th day we passed the much dreaded, boisterous Cape Horn, with such pleasant weather as far exceeded our most sanguine hopes. From that time to the 75th day out we had to contend with the warring elements—the wind prevailed from the northward and westward, of a course a head wind; the swell of the sea was much greater than we have been accustomed to in the Atlantic.—The weather, although this is (in this hemisphere) the summer season, was piercing cold—having but lately passed through the tropics and experienced so much warm weather, we were but illy prepared for the sudden change. The thermometer fell to 40 degrees—this you in Virginia, will at this present season, only call moderate weather, but here with a S. wind (while veering and doubling the cape) blowing from off the islands of ice to the southward, we found it cold enough. The Faulkland Isles, Staten Land, Cape Horn, Terre del Fuego, and the islands we passed in sight of, were covered with snow;—the appearance of the land in all this region was bleak and barren—by no means inviting, and though our eyes could rest with pleasure on it as being land, still the dreary prospect soon surfeits me. You may recollect what a joyful sound land ho! is to the seaman after a long voyage; it awakens an association of ideas which even should the land be inhospital in prospect, cheers through the chill mid-watch; it reminds the wandering sailor of distant friends, and of the enjoyments and comforts they are revelling in; increases his anxiety to partake with them of their joys; and feels his hope that the happy day will arrive when he may "join in their sports, their revels and their wiles"—this is the way a sailor spends his hours of thought. We are now fast approaching Valparaiso—our crew continue healthy—we have lost midshipman Peter B. Randolph, and one boy by typhus fever, and one man drowned, fell overboard; we feel confident of a cruise of pleasure. Should I be able from Valparaiso to give you any news, civil, political or military, I shall with pleasure resume my pen."

"Valparaiso, Jan. 29*th* 1819.

"After a passage of 80 days, we yesterday anchored in this port—the only news here is that the patriots have lately gained a decisive victory over the royalists, on the 18th inst. near Conception."

New-York, July 24.

ATROCIOUS PIRACY.

The brig Pedlar, Capt. Vermilye, arrived last night in 48 days from Havre-de-Grace, and 38 from Plymouth, England, having been obliged to put in thither by stress of weather, and detained there four days by continual gales from the westward. On the 9th instant, in lat. 34, 20, long. 54, the brig was boarded by an armed schr (having an armed ship in company under French colors) mounting 14 guns, and manned by blacks and mulattoes.—They came on board, with pistols, swords, and long knives, and having severely beaten the officers and crew, and driven them all into the forecastle, they commenced an indiscriminate plunder of clothing, money, liquors, dry goods, &c. They broke open most of the packages on board, and took away the most valuable parts of the cargo. Having been occupied about five hours in taking away and securing their plunder, they permitted the brig to proceed on her voyage.

Capt. Vermilye has left at this office several packages of Paris papers, which were stripped of their directions, by the pirates who plundered his vessel. Any gentleman who may have had a package put on board may call and select his own. [Com. Adv.

Philadelphia, July 24.

A gentleman travelling in the northwest, writes—"The best port to make for in a voyage to the Upper Lakes is Erie. From thence you can at any time in the summer season, secure passage on board some merchant vessel, bound for Detroit or Mackinack. Lake Erie is not so wide but you can at all times, of a clear day, see land on one or the other of its shores. Though not so large as the lakes above, it is not generally considered of so safe or pleasant a navigation. In comparison with lakes Huron and Michigan, it is narrow and shallow. It affords but few good harbors, and is subject to frequent and heavy squalls of wind, creating a short, quick sea, more dangerous and unpleasant than the mountainous roll of lake Huron."

The first harbor that is made is one of the Put-in-Bay Islands, a numerous cluster near the head of the lake, rendered famous in the last war. Some of these islands 'are large and well timbered, of a good soil, and affording quantities of limestone, from whence the inhabitants of the southern shore of the lake are supplied with this article. They are again subdivided into smaller clusters, and are designated by the sailor as 'the old sow and her pigs, the old hen and her chickens, the three sisters,' &c. &c.

One of the Put-in-Bay Islands had been much improved by Col. Edwards of the Connecticut Reserve, who had a good farm and a stock of cattle on it at the commencement of the war, but since his death in 1813, has been little or none attended to. From Erie to these islands is 150 miles, and from thence it is 30 more to the mouth of Detroit river, which you greet with infinite pleasure, after suffering, as you frequently do, in a boisterons and unpleasant passage of six or seven days, in a small but dirty vessel. Though latterly the accommodations have become much better, and the steamboat will almost destroy the unpleasantness of a lake voyage. Malden, a small dirty town of a few houses, and a British garrison, you leave on the east side, and pass a little above the mouth of the river, up which you continue your course nearly due north. This is a beautiful strait through which all the waters of the upper lakes pass on to the Falls of Niagara. It is from one to two miles wide, and deep enough to receive ships of the largest class—at Malden alone it is narrow, and divided by the island of Bois Blanc, the ship channel running on the east, or British side. Fifteen miles above this, on the same side, is Sandwich, a small but handsome town, on the bank of the river, from which you have a full and beautiful view of the city and settlement of Detroit, extending for nearly 3 miles on the bank of the river. This view, of a clear day, is extremely picturesque and beautiful; as the wind gently wafts you up the river, its green banks, fine farms, covered with orchards, and their houses of a singular order of architecture, which you can but just discern through the trees planted around it, of various fruit, or in full bloom, and at every point or high place, the large wings of a windmill attached to a neat round white building, cutting the air, form and finish out a scenery, you can contemplate only with emotions of pleasure.

Detroit is a very old settlement, commenced by the French about the time Philadelphia was, by Penn. The houses, particularly in the settlement above and below the town, are built of frame or logs of one low story, and as frequently on a large ground plot with high roofs, you would frequently imagine the garret to be the larger part of the house. The town in 1805, was entirely destroyed by fire, since which it has been rebuilt upon a better plan. It has two streets running parallel with the river, and intersected by two other streets and two alleys at right angles. The main or second street from the river is remarkably broad, and having a sandy or gravelly soil is seldom muddy; there is only a part of it paved. The beauty of the place is much injured by the want of a street on the river bank, where the houses have been built so close as to destroy all passage betwixt them and the water. This place has no springs or wells; water for all purposes is taken from the river. Three miles from the town, on the bank of the river, are two small springs denominated "the Spring Wells," where all classes and fashions resort to in parties of pleasure."

From Nassau papers received at the office of the Charleston Courier.

Nassau, May 29.

This morning sailed his Majesty's brig Shearwater, capt. Cox, for Jamaica; and his Majesty's schooner Speedwell, lieut. Gray, for Ragged Island, having on board a detachment of the 2d W. I. regiment.—In a preceding gazette was reported the capture at that island of a brig and schr. by a privateer commanded by one Black, who fitted out the latter as a consort.—At that time Black's conduct was represented as having been civil to the inhabitants; it appears however, that his subsequent proceedings have been of a most outrageous character, particularly towards the settlement of Mr. Moss. The owner of the schooner, a Mr. Arrembide, having expressed himself in warm, though perhaps, in proper terms, respecting the capture of his vessel, Black became so enraged as to threaten his life. For security Arrembide went to Mr. Moss's settlement, and begged the assistance of the negroes there. Black followed him and made two attempts on his life by a dirk, and then drew a pistol which he discharged, fortunately without effect. The negroes coming to the assistance of Arrembide, Black jumped a wall, and went off—in the mean time the crew of his vessel having been informed of the circumstance, came on shore, twelve in number, to his assistance—Black and his men then returned to Mr. Moss's place, and demanded the Spaniard who had taken refuge there, which the negroes refused to comply with. A battle then took place between Black's people and the negroes; and the former were obliged to retreat; they returned however the next morning, and attempted to force their way, and destroy the plantation, but were again repulsed, and as they retreated, Black was wounded, and three of his men. They threatened then to return with an additional force, and destroy the plantation. Arrembide, during the first fight, made his escape in a canoe, with three negro boys; and Black, from his wounds, being unable to carry his threats into execution, made sail from the island a day or two afterwards.—This Black, as we are informed, is the same person who was, not long before, at Marsh's Harbor, Abaco, and who declared to some of the people there that he had come out for money, and money he must have, without regard to any flag. He was in a clinker built schooner; the same that he commanded at Ragged island.—The Speedwell, we believe, is gone in search of this marauder, and we hope will succeed in her errand.

The American brig General Jackson, Taylor, master, from New-Orleans bound to Havre-de-Grace, has been wrecked on the Florida Reef—the cargo, consisting of tobacco, has been saved, and part of it brought to port; the remainder, which was saved by an American vessel, was carried to the United States.

June 2.

The mail boat Sir Billy Curtis returned from Crooked Island, on Monday last.—The Sir Billy Curtis has brought down three wounded seamen belonging to the Artigan privateer, commanded by J. Northrup—they were landed at Crooked Island from the schooner La Constantia, H. P. Fleishman, commander, said to be the consort of Captain Northrup, and stated to have been wounded in an engagement with a Spanish packet in the Old Straits.

On the 9th ult. a mutiny took place on board the Artigas cruizer Constantia, H. P. Fleishman, commander, off Heneagua, the effects of a cask of gin which the crew had clandestinely taken on board at Turks-Island. Two of the ringleaders, John Swain and Caleb Raymond, were killed, one wounded, and another severely punished—the mutineers had armed themselves with harpoons, pistols, and bludgeons.

June 5.

Arrived, sloop Maria, Hudson, Havana. The Maria was boarded yesterday in the Berry Island passage, by an officer from an armed schooner, then showing British colors; after examining the Maria's papers, they departed. One of the people in the boarding boat said she was called the Fire-Fly—the vessel, although assuming to be the Speedwell, was, no doubt an insurgent cruiser.

June 9.

The schooner Hermon, Milne, master, from St. John N. B. bound to Jamaica, was lately wrecked at the Caicos—part of the cargo was saved and sold there. The master had proceeded for Jamaica, after having been robbed by some of his crew, who had gone off in the boat.

Several other vessels have been wrecked in that neighborhood, the names of which we have not learned; one of them a Dutch vessel.

June 12.

Yesterday his Majesty's schr. Speedwell, lieut. Gray, returned from Ragged Island, where he found all things quiet; Black and his cruizers having left the place. Of the prohibited and uncustomed goods, which it was alleged had been landed there, only a quantity of beans in bags were discovered, which had been seized by the searcher appointed on the occasion, and brought to town. Guns and ammunition for the protection of the island have been sent there and landed from the Speedwell.

By the arrival this morning of the schr. Eleanor, Outen, from Turk's Island, we learn that the sloop Mason's Daughter, of this port, was lately lost on the point of a reef at the entrance to the anchorage at the Grand Turk. Cargo saved and sold to pay salvage.

A private letter from Turk's Island mentions, that the Americans seem of late to have deserted the place; not more than ten vessels from the Windward Islands having called there this year for salt; and that their resort for this article is now to the Isle of May, where it is procured at a cheaper rate, free of duties, and in greater quantities.

Extract of a letter, received at New-York, dated Liverpool, June 12.

Sir—For your favor of May 10, received June 5, we are much obliged, and assure you that whenever you can find time to write we shall always be very happy to receive your letters. The times on your side are dreadful; here they are wretchedly bad, and our markets we are satisfied must yet go lower—in fact our present quotations are quite nominal, and the daily accumulation of cotton is so heavy that we apprehend it will yet bring down both American and India houses. There is just now no appearance of any amendment whatever; and the fact of nearly all the bills remitted being refused acceptance, materially increases the distress. We see nothing but failures before us, and we are certain that many months must elapse before confidence can be restored by the mercantile world being cleared of those who have been so ruinously overtrading themselves, and who must be swept away before a steady, fair and safe trade can be resumed. These violent commercial storms which occasionally happen, are always dreadful in their operation, but uniformly salutary in their effects, and enable the man of property and prudence to carry on his concerns for a few years peaceably and profitably without the interference of these wild speculative theorists, who always involve many in the ruin they seek for themselves. The East India company now have a rich harvest by purchasing in India their goods from these free traders at less than half their cost. They being compelled to sell at any rate, and in fact being all nearly annihilated. And to these men who 15 months ago boasted they would carry all before them, we are indebted for the present melancholy situation of our markets—consequently have but little commiseration from those interested in the American trade, which they avowedly stated they would destroy.

They deserve no sympathy—however, in process of time, when they shall be put completely hors de combat, the American trade will again raise its head and be conducted with some degree of satisfaction and pleasure; and so long as American cottons shall continue at or under 11d per pound, Surats and Bengals may be laid on the shelf, and the transatlantic planter ought to sell his produce (and which he can do with a profit) at a price that will admit of saving sales to the shipper; being effected here at from 10½ to 12d per lb.

Sir—Tho' the state of business in this quarter [we might say in Europe,] is far from being what we could wish, and that we therefore have but unpleasant accounts to give, we beg to wait upon you with some information on the situation of our market, and recommend ourselves to your consignments in case lower prices of produce with you should afford sufficient encouragement for speculation.

Since our last advices we have now and then experienced some revivals of trade, but the same being each time counteracted by new failures and a renewed scarcity of money in various parts of Europe, the momentary hopes which they gave of an amelioration in markets, soon vanished away each small fluctuation ended in a further decline, and encreased the general discouragement.

The prices of Virginia, Kentucky, and Georgia Tobacco have not of late varied materially, nor are they likely to go much if any thing lower now. Those of Maryland on the contrary have fallen rapidly to the present rates, and we apprehend that they have not yet seen their lowest, as the decline which has already taken place, has not occasioned any improvement in the demand.—The dealers only purchase when they have immediate wants to supply, and then take a parcel which suits them best.—Sales are thus difficult, and we cannot at present on that account determine as well as otherwise the value of one parcel, by the sale of another. Our quotations have been regulated by the last sales here and at Amsterdam, but for several days past we have been without any offers.

The decline which prices of Cotton have undergone in England, has had a corresponding effect on our market.—A large parcel of Upland of fine quality was lately sold here at the average price of 28¼ groats fl. which we think would still be obtainable. In E. I. Cottons, there is hardly any thing doing, the chief part of our moderate stock being limited above our quotations, which we consider as obtainable or very nearly so. The immense stock of E. I. Cotton in England [in London it is computed at about 190,000 bales.] will for some time continue to prevent any improvement taking place in the value of this, and other descriptions.

Carolina Rice after having been up to about 60 shellings, is now come down again to our quotations, and we doubt whether a fresh arrival will bring more than 50 shellings, tho' 300 tierces have just been sold at 54 shellings. Java, and good Bengal maintain at 33 shellings and the consumption of these qualities has for some time been most extensive.

The dilatory conduct of our government in the discussion about a consumption duty on Coffee and Sugars proposed by the "director general of the Taxes," and finally the very improper adoption thereof, has for several months operated unfavorably on business in these articles, and though the decision of the question has now restored some stability to markets, the decline in those of Great Britain, France and Hamburg, has of course tended to depress our prices.—The demand for Coffee is now very limited, but the smallness of the stock of the article in Germany, lead us to look for more orders for it from these. The consumption duty on Coffee will be 1 stiver per lb. which tax is not such as can have any influence, but it will as well as that on Sugars, subject merchants to many troublesome formalities.

The law relative to the consumption duties on Sugars is not yet published, and it is generally believed, that neither of the two duties will be exacted before the first of July next.—The demand for made Sugars continuing so very small, our refiners purchase but sparingly of the raw article and our quotations for the lower qualities in particular, are thereby rendered rather uncertain—Fine Surinam Sugars have been sold at 10 groats flem. ordinary yellow and brown Havana at 10, 10 1-8 gr. fl., for a parcel of the latter we have obtained 10¼ gr. fl. for very good white 15¼ gr. fl. and ordinary 12¼ gr. fl. per. lb.

Pearlashes and Potashes are in good demand.

Fine heavy hides with few or no Bull hides among them find buyers, whilst other descriptions remain dull.

Good to fine Bengal Indigo moves off well.

Spices are very dull.—For a small parcel of light black pepper we have with difficulty obtained 17 gr. fl. per lb.—Ginger remains without any inquiry.

Prices of Grain generally, are lowering, and business in that line is on a very small scale.

Baltimore, July 26.

On Saturday last, in consequence of information given to Judge Brice, he caused four men to be arrested and brought before him for examination, who were suspected of being engaged in circulating counterfeit notes. While they were in the judges room waiting for examination, a by-stander perceiving that one of them threw something into a fire place immediately behind where they were sitting, gave notice of the circumstance, and on searching, it was found to be a bundle of counterfeit notes, consisting of three dollar bills of the Bank of the Metropolis, in the city of Washington; and two dollar bills of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore.

The whole four are strangers in the place, having been here but a few days. One of them was pointed out by a person present at the examination, as having bought of him, the evening before, a gold watch, and paid him with a note which he produced to the judge; this, on inspection, proved to be a one dollar note of the Bank of Maryland, altered to fifty.

They were committed for further examination, and this morning, after being again examined, were committed for trial.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25
